Warsaw, July 29.

THE King of Poland is expected here from Dresden about the middle of next Month. The Turkish Envoy who lately had Audience of his Majesty at Reissen, took his Leave of the Crown General at Lemberg the 19th past, and proceeded on his Journey home. Twelve Regiments of Muscovite Troops came lately from Smolensko to Orszana. Our Accounts from Muscovy say, the Cossacks continue in Rebellion against the Czar.

Venice, Aug. 6. The 2d Instant the Senate received an Express from the Chevalier Ruzzini, their Ambassadour at the Congress at Passarowitz, with the welcome News that the Treaty of Peace between the Emperour and this State, and the Ottoman Porte, was signed there the 21st past; and the 4th being Sunday, the Doge, attended by a great Number of Nobility, went in State to the great Church of St. Mark, where Te Deum was sung upon this happy Occasion. Count Coloredo, the Emperour's Ambassadour, who had likewise received a Courier with the same News from Vienna, caused a solemn Service to be performed in the Church of the Carmelite Friars, and gave a very magnificent Entertainment to several Persons of Distinction. An English Merchant Man is come in here from the Archipelago, the Master whereof reports, that the Turkish Fleet was come out of the Dardanelles; and that on the 9th of the last Month he met the Venetian Fleet, under the Command of Admiral Diedo, in the Bay of Cerigo, sailing to the Eastward with a fair Wind. And there are Letters from Zant of the 10th which say, that they had heard the report of great Guns at Sea all that Day, which began in the Morning and did not cease till Night, from whence they conclude the two Fleets had been engaged. They write from Naples of the 29th past, that they were in daily Expectation of the Appearance of the British Fleet on their Coast; that Count Thaun, their Viceroy, had got together a good Number of Feluccas and other Vessels for the transporting of Troops to Reggio; and that General Wallis and several other Imperial Officers were gone over from the Place last mentioned to Messina, to assist in the Defence of that City, which besides its Citadel is defended by the Castles of Salvatore and Mattagrifone, all very well fortified and provided with strong Garrisons, and with Ammunition and all other Necessaries, and which entirely command both the City and the Port; and that the Towns of Trapani, Melazzo and Syracuse were likewise in a Condition to hold out a considerable Time, and sufficiently garrisoned.

Francfort, Aug. 11. The Troops of the Circles, to whom is committed the Execution of the Imperial Mandate for putting the Landgrave of Hesse Rhinfeld in Possession of Rhinfeld, having received fresh Orders to proceed, drew together again this Week, and advanced within half a League of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel's Territories, whose Troops were in Readiness to oppose them, and had Orders to act offensively upon the least Hostility's being committed: But upon a Message which General Isselbach, who commands the Troops of the Circle, received from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, he thought fit to halt, and there is yet Reason to hope that this Matter is in a way of Accomodation. The Bishop and Chapter of Munster have chosen Prince Philip, one of the younger Sons of the Elector of Bavaria, Coadjutor of that Bishoprick.

Copenhagen, Aug. 13. The King of Denmark went back to Fredericksbourg the 9th Instant, and returned Yesterday to this Place; his Majesty intends in a few Days to make a Tour to Laland and Falster, and the Isle of Mona, to visit the For-
